

EXITING THE BUILDING PROMPTLY AFTER SCHOOL

Due to safety concerns and no assigned supervision after school, when the bell rings to end school, all students are to leave the building promptly. Exceptions would include students attending after-school tutoring with a teacher in a classroom, or students that are required to stay for extra-curricular activities. Those students will have an assigned location to wait. The computer labs will be closed to students as well. Students will be asked to clear the halls soon after the bell rings. Repeated violations may result in disciplinary actions.
